

Trinity Sunday 2020.

Intercessions

Loving Father God, we thank you for the beauty of your creation – for the new wonder we have found in having time to appreciate the natural world around us – in our gardens, our window boxes, during our daily walks.

We pray that we will not lose this sense of wonder when life becomes busy again, and that we may always see your hand in all your works.

Lord, in your mercy

Hear our prayer.

Loving Son of God, we thank you for your promise to be with us always, even to the end of time.

We pray for all who have suffered so much during these last weeks, those who are ill, those who have lost loved ones, those who have found themselves close to despair. May they know your loving presence with them, even in the darkest times, through the gentleness and kindness of others.

Lord, in your mercy

Hear our prayer.

Loving Spirit of God, we thank you for moving among us and inspiring us with hope and energy. We pray that we, like those first disciples, may find the courage to learn from our experience, to change, to move on, and to take your message of love into our wounded world.

Lord, in your mercy

Hear our prayer.

The Grace of our Lord Jesus Christ,
the Love of God
and the Fellowship of the Holy Spirit
be with us all, evermore, AMEN
